Primary consideration will be given to undergraduates who are juniors or seniors during the 2016-2017 academic year. Evaluation will be based on your undergraduate record (GPA, progress toward degree) and on your service activities. Service includes any activities assisting organizations that provide services of value to the community. These may be OSU organizations (academic, social, or student) or organizations in the local community and beyond. Although there is not a specific GPA requirement, the GPA will be taken into account in evaluating the application. In the past, successful candidates have generally had GPA's greater than 3.3.

Please submit this form, along with the following supporting documentation:

- _____ An essay (maximum of one page) stating your goals, accomplishments and service activities
- _____ One nomination letter from a faculty or staff member at OSU, or from an organization that has directly benefitted from your service activities
- _____ Names of two references familiar with your academic or service work (include name, title, e-mail and phone number)
- _____ Resume
- _____ Permission to access your OSU records _____

Applicant's Signature – if considered in the final round of selection, your GPA will be confirmed.

Please do not include a copy of your transcript with your application.

Submit your materials (hard copy only, no electronic submission) to:

Professor Ken Krane, Physics Department, Oregon State University, Weniger Hall 301, Corvallis OR 97331

The scholarship recipient will be selected and notified in early January and invited to attend a TRIAD meeting in January to be recognized.

TRIAD, an OSU organization for more than three quarters of a century, is dedicated to the three tenets of cooperation, fellowship and service. The TRIAD Service Scholarship was established to further the goal of service as a value worthy of encouragement, acknowledgement and reward within the OSU student community. Whether you are selected or not, the Scholarship Committee, on behalf of TRIAD, commends you for your commitment to community service.
