

TRIAD Faculty and Staff Club

Membership Application

TRIAD is the OSU faculty and staff club. Membership is open to the entire OSU community of faculty and staff who enjoy

- Great lunchtime conversations with colleagues from around campus
- Meeting new people from different disciplines in a relaxed and fun atmosphere
- Learning something new about people they already know
- Interesting speakers drawn from OSU, local and state government, and beyond
- Good food prepared by OSU Catering
- Opportunity to develop new relationships
- A good laugh
- The perfect excuse to miss a workout at Dixon!

Officially, the objectives of the Triad Faculty and Staff Club of Oregon State University are

- to make more effective the service this institution renders to students and the state
- to stimulate greater accomplishments by our institution in the extension of human knowledge and its application to human welfare
- to promote fellowship among its members
- to encourage a better understanding between educational institutions
- to foster cooperation among students, faculty, and townspeople.

from the Triad Constitution

Name: _____

Department or Unit: _____

Telephone Number: _____ Email Address: _____

By signing this membership application form, I commit to the principles and rules of The Triad Faculty and Staff Club of Oregon State University. I agree to maintain active membership as much as possible, attending at least six lunches per term.

Membership Status

(check one)

ACTIVE ($12, per lunch, participate in at least six lunches per term)

INACTIVE ($13 per lunch, no minimum lunches per term)

Signature: _____ Date: _____

$35.00 New Member Annual Dues (dues will be $70.00 after the first year)

You may pay your annual dues in cash or with a check made out to "TRIAD Club." Return the application form and fee to the treasurer, Nick Houtman, Research Communications, 102 Adams Hall.